Friday & Saturday Only—Feb. 25-26

FIFTY THOUSAND people—the residents of Torrance and nearby communities—are invited to shop and save in Torrance next Friday and Saturday. Merchants are determined to out-do the tremendously successful Dollar Days held last August. Thousands came then—as they will again—for the wealth of wanted items offered in every merchandise line—at breathtaking, bargain prices. It is a city-wide, two-day event with scores of stores participating, sponsored officially by the Retail Division. Make it a "must"—Torrance great Double Dollar Days—Friday and Saturday.

Lots & Lots of FREE PARKING

Never before has Torrance offered so much free parking area to shoppers! New lots have been added to those in previous use. There are a score or more of store-provided parking areas all over town in addition to several big city-owned free lots. And, of course, there are no pesky parking meters in Torrance.
